LIFE AT NEHU, TURA CAMPUS

Tura is the headquarter of West Garo Hills, district of Meghalaya which is considered as a land of opportunity, a beauty in the lap of nature hidden from millions of eyes looking for wonders where the sunlight plays with clouds. The name Tura is a distortion by British Colonialists from the earlier name Dura or Durama in Garo language meaning the Guardian Goddess of the range of hills.

It is a land of green hills, streams and of simple and smiling people. It is about 220 km South-West by road from Guwahati. It is also a steadily but surely developing potential destination for tourism in North-East.

On this land of clouds the Department of Management, North Eastern Hill University (NEHU) is on a mission to nurture budding managers for the future. This Department along with other Departments of Garo, English, Education and Rural Development & Agricultural Production since its inception in 2006 has a long way to go, in maintaining academic excellence, strengthening its base and developing itself in multidimensional ways consistently and continuously.

The challenge is to remain competitive as ever. Even then human beings have an amazing spirit of creative adjustment with adverse circumstances, shaping their environment suitably, conducive and trying their level best in achieving goals. Even in an extremely adverse situation man has an indomitable wish to acquire excellence. And, we, here at the Department of Management, NEHU have to overcome difficulties sure to come by.

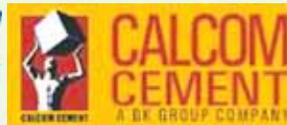

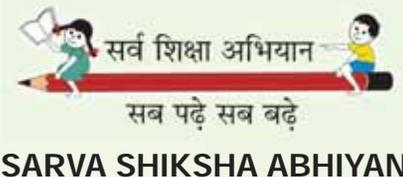

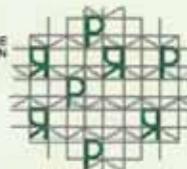

THE PLACEMENT CELL

The department has fully networked industry institute interface cell looking after training and final placements of the students. The conscious effort put in by the cell resulted in some of the biggest corporate recruiters showing interest in our institution and students.
